MOODY INN

Welcome to Moody Inn

To our guests,

Welcome to Moody Inn! It is our sincere wish that you enjoy your stay with us, as we are committed to providing you with comfortable quarters and to exceed your expectations. Please feel free to call any member of our staff should you have additional needs.

We recognize the road to quality begins with you, our valued guests, and ask that you please complete a comment card. Should there be anything we can improve upon, or if someone was especially helpful, please let us know.

If you have any requests or need any additional information, please contact our front desk by dialing 0.

We hope your stay is extremely enjoyable.

Sincerely,

Randy Washington, NF-III
Operations Manager
Moody Inn Lodging

MOODY INN

Welcome Valued Guest! We have provided you with a few complimentary items to get you through your first night's stay. Feel free to ask any Lodging team member if you need any of these replenished. If you forgot to pack any other toiletry item, please come to see us at the front desk. We should have what you need available for purchase.

Air Force Inns Promise

Our goal is to provide you a clean, comfortable room to guarantee a good night's rest and pleasant stay. If any part of your stay with us is not satisfactory, please provide the lodging manger or front desk staff an opportunity to "make it right".

Forget a Travel Item

Welcome! We have provided you with a few complimentary items. If you forgot to pack any other standard item (toothbrush, toothpaste, razor, shaving cream, etc.), please come to see us at the front desk. We should have what you need available for purchase.

Save the Towels

All of the water and detergents used to wash hotel towels and linens each day all over the world puts a heavy burden on the environment. If you would like to reuse your towels, just hang them on the towel racks. If you want your towels replaced, please just leave them on the bathroom floor or in the tub.

Friendly Reminder

Moody Inn is not responsible for individuals' personal property. Personal safes are provided in each room for your convenience.

MOODY INN

WIRELESS HIGH SPEED INTERNET ACCESS (HSIA) INSTRUCTIONS

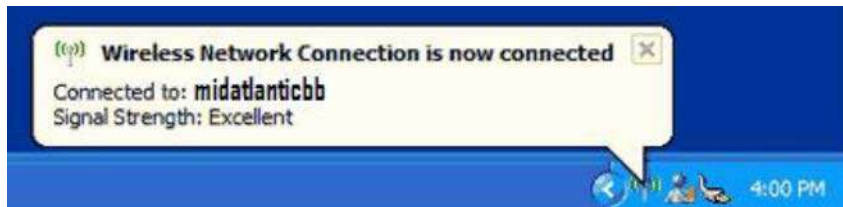

Wireless internet service is provided via an 802.11b/g signal. This signal is not encrypted, and no login credentials are needed. The Dynamic Host Configuration Protocol (DHCP) service will automatically setup your Internet Protocol (IP) and your Domain Name System (DNS). DNS is an Internet System that translates web names into IP addresses. If you have trouble connecting to the wireless service please see below.

PC Setup Instructions

1. Turn on your computer; most computers will try to automatically connect to any available wireless network. Connect to the Service Set ID (SSID) Network Name: midatlanticbb. If you cannot connect or unable to see the signal see troubleshooting below.
2. Ensure your computer is setup to use the DHCP service or obtain an IP automatically. If you regularly connect to wireless hot spots your computer should be setup for this. If unsure please see troubleshooting section below.
3. If you're having a problem connecting to a Virtual Private Network (VPN) please contact our help desk.

Troubleshooting

1. Unable to detect wireless signal – If you are unable to see the “midatlanticbb” wireless signal. Verify that your wireless card is on. Some laptops have switches that will turn the wireless card on or off. If you're unable to see the wireless signal, try moving your laptop to another part of the room to check if it's a signal issue. Contact the Help Desk for support on wireless signal issues.

2. Windows machines will look like this when connected.
3. IP Settings - The internet service use's DHCP to assign IP addressing automatically, below is a reference of how your computer will be configured.
 - a) Address Type: (Assigned by DHCP)
 - b) IP Address/IPv4 IP Address: IP address between (10.71.X.X – 10.71.X.X)
 - c) Subnet Mask/IPv4 Subnet Mask: (255.255.224.0)
 - d) Default Gateway/IPv4 Default Gateway: (10.71.0.1)

MOODY INN

If you've clicked status, then click the details button and note the IPv4 settings. If the IPv4 settings do not match the IP settings in paragraph 3 or you clicked properties scroll until you see “Internet Protocol Version 4” and double click it. Ensure the following are correct and click okay to exit all windows.

Obtain IP address automatically is checked

Obtain DNS server address automatically is checked.

Apple OSX 10 based machines IP settings can be configured by doing the following commands, Click Apple Menu-System Preferences-Network-Under show select the Air Port Adapter or Wireless adapter

Click the TCP/IP tab and note the Ipv4 settings. Ensure Using DHCP is selected under “Configured Ipv4.”

IF ALL SETTINGS ARE CORRECT AND YOU’RE STILL UNABLE TO GET ONLINE

- A number of issues can prevent you from being able to access the internet, below are a list of a few.
- Try browsing to a web page before using applications such as email
- Firewalls can sometime cause a problems connecting, turn off personal/software. Firewalls, pop-up blockers, and other security tools that could prevent access. They should be turned back on once connected
- We do not support any online gaming services (Xbox, PlayStation, psp, etc.)
- Contact help desk for additional support

MOODY INN

The 23d Force Support Squadron is here to serve the Airmen, retirees, civilians and families of Moody AFB, Georgia. We are committed to providing service and support as well as morale, welfare and recreation programs.

Our squadron falls under the 23d Mission Support Group of the 23d Wing here at Moody. The 23rd Force Support Squadron is broken down into five flights--Airman & Family Services, Community Services, Force Development, Manpower & Personnel and Sustainment Services.

23 FSS Mission

Provide force management support for the 23d Wing as it executes worldwide Combat Search and Rescue, close air support, forward air control, interdiction, force protection and agile combat support in the support of humanitarian and U.S. national security interests and the Global War on Terrorism. Provide combat support through lodging, food and beverage, and fitness operations. Deliberately develop and nurture 23d Wing Airmen and Civilian Employees through a full range of education and training, preparing them to deploy, attack, rescue and protect. Provide strategic advisor support to leadership; educate Airmen on Personnel System Delivery changes, National Security Personnel System, and AF Transformation. Take care of Airmen and their families on our base and in our community by providing education opportunities, child care, recreation, readiness and mortuary support.

23 FSS Vision

Superior Service, Superior Team, Superior Results

FACT SHEET

23RD WING

The mission of the 23rd Wing is to organize, train and equip Flying Tigers to rapidly deploy and execute the Global Precision Attack (GPA), Personnel Recovery (PR), and Agile Combat Support (ACS) Service Core Functions to meet worldwide Combatant Commander requirements.

The wing executes worldwide close air support, force protection and peacetime and personnel recovery operations in support of humanitarian and U.S. national security interests, and in support of contingency operations across the globe.

The 23rd Wing aircraft include the A-10C, HH-60G, HC-130P and HC-130J.

The A-10C Thunderbolt II is the first Air Force aircraft specially designed for close air support of ground forces and has been digitally upgraded with the latest precision-guided weaponry and communications.

The HH-60G Pave Hawk helicopter provides rescue forces to include a combat search and rescue and personnel recovery platform for the Air Force through its ability to operate in a vast array of rescue scenarios in any weather condition.

The HC-130P Combat King flies low-level missions into hostile territory to conduct rescues and to provide air refueling for our rescue helicopters' security interests.

The HC-130J Combat King II is mission ready to rapidly deploy to execute combatant commander directed recovery operations to include airdrop, air land, helicopter air-to-air refueling, and forward are ground refueling missions.

The wing executes worldwide peacetime, combat search and rescue operations and personnel recovery missions in support of humanitarian and U.S. national security interests, and in support of the global war on terrorism.

Command & Control Flight

The Command Post functions as the executive agency for the Wing Commander and is authorized to communicate command direction to all organizations that support the installation. The Command Post is the single agency on base responsible for the execution of command and control activities. These activities include various tasks and requirements established by higher directives, plans, and also any Commander directed activities.

MOODY INN

Base Chapel

Ministry in the military is shaped by unforeseen challenges that need to be viewed as limitless opportunities. How best to respond to the spiritual needs of our people will require imagination and innovation. What does not change is what we do best: provide the highest quality spiritual care for our people, modeling and facilitating ethical leadership.

23rd Comptroller Squadron

Respected professionals shaping processes, systems, and technology to provide the most relevant, accurate, reliable, and timely resource management support and financial services wherever and whenever required for the execution of the Air Force mission.

History Office

The 23rd Wing History Office performs and manages historical activities, programs, and functions. The office provides historical research and reference services, performs research, interview personnel, and prepares analytical historical publications. It also assembles and maintains historical document repositories for reference and research.

Manpower and Organization Office

Provide manpower management support to Headquarters 23rd Wing and all associate units at Moody Air Force Base. Advise commanders and agency chiefs on best organization, use, and mix of manpower resources during peacetime and wartime. Implement Headquarters United States Air Force and Headquarters Air Combat Command manpower programs and administers the Air Force Productivity Program. Lead OMB Circular A-76 studies for 23rd Wing units.

Public Affairs Office

Expanding awareness and support for the world's most respected aerospace force. The U.S. Air Force engages in Public Affairs to provide trusted counsel to leaders; build, maintain, and strengthen Airman Morale and readiness; enhance public trust and support; and achieve global influence and deterrence.

To do so, Public Affairs Operations facilitate the following programs:

- Internal Information: Ensures a free flow of information to Air Force personnel and their families, through our official public website. Internal information achieves informed internal support for the Air Force mission. PA also responds to inquiries by Air Force members and their families.

- Media Relations: Ensures a free flow of information through the news media to the general public and achieves informed public support for the Air Force mission. Public Affairs responds to inquiries by the news media and brings Air Force issues to the public agenda.

MOODY INN

- Community Relations: Creates mutual acceptance, respect, appreciation and cooperation between the Air Force and the community. This helps maintain two-way communication between Air Force people and the communities in which they live. Public Affairs programs also assist Air Force recruiting efforts, and respond to requests for Air Force participation in public events. PA additionally manages environmental Public Affairs issues, promotes coordination, cooperation and mutual understanding among DOD components and ensures legal mandates of community involvement are met.

Office of the Staff Judge Advocate

The Staff Judge Advocate is the primary legal advisor to the 23rd Wing and 93rd Air Ground Operations Wing and oversees Base Legal Office operations. The legal office staff provides legal support essential for military operations. They litigate to preserve command prerogatives, administer military justice and civil law programs and educate and counsel on the law. They also provide legal assistance to active duty members, their dependents and the retiree community.

Equal Opportunity

The Equal Opportunity office provides various human resource services such as equal opportunity assistance information, alternate dispute resolution (ADR) and helping agency referrals. They also provide informal and formal complaint assistance and processing to all federal employed civilians as well as military members, their family members and retirees who believe they have experienced unlawful discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, and sex, to include sexual harassment.

Equal Opportunity incidents are processed by the office and has strict U.S. Air Force, Headquarters reporting guidelines. The EO staff provides technical guidance as subject matter experts for higher-level complaint processing. They conduct Unit Climate Assessments (UCA) for commanders at all levels and semi-annual Wing Climate Assessments for the installation commander. Periodic "out and about" visits are also used to assess organizational and wing equal opportunity and treatment climates. Additionally, classes are provided to all military and civilian personnel in various human relations' subject matter.

Office of the Inspector General

Acts as the 'eyes and ears' of the wing commander. The IG addresses the concerns of Air Force active duty, Reserve and Guard members, civilian employees, family members, retirees and the best interests of the Air Force.

They operate by advocating fair, impartial treatment, improving the quality of life through detection and elimination of all forms of fraud, waste and abuse. The office evaluates the wing's processes, makes suggestions for improvement and increases trust and confidence in leadership and the Air Force. The IG allows commanders to proactively seek opportunities for improvement through behavior and process modification by providing trend analysis and heightening awareness of issues.

Their ultimate goal is to sustain a credible Inspector General Complaints Program.

Wing Plans, Programs and Inspections

MOODY INN

The primary function of the 23rd Wing Plans, Programs and Inspection office is to provide cross-wing coordination on all current and future operations for Moody and three geographically-separated units.

Wing plans monitors, coordinates and manages all wing-wide long range plans, and base support plans in addition to managing the Commander's Support Staff during contingency or disaster response.

Wing programs manages all higher headquarters program changes, congressionally-mandated programs and treaty compliance.

Wing inspections is responsible for providing the commander with an accurate assessment of combat readiness for more than 5,500 personnel and $1.5 billion in assets.

Wing scheduling manages aviation tasking's and event requests, individual aviation tasking and tracks and coordinates the wing flying hour program. Force support provides operational information technology expertise to subordinate units with Mission Information Manager Personnel both at home station and for ongoing deployed operations.

Safety Office

The 23rd Wing Safety office provides development, coordination and management of mishap prevention for Moody. Potential mishaps are reduced through the use and analysis of current accident/injury data, hazard abatement plans, periodic inspections and surveys of all command and tenant facilities and activities. Safety personnel investigate accidents and make recommendations to foresee and prevent mishap recurrence. In coordination with the 23rd Wing Safety council, this office develops standards, policies, and procedures for mission unique safety activities through the use of Operational Risk Management (ORM).
